ROCKET MISSING

The new leadership team has again come under fire after Ava löke was missing two key performances "sütti sütti" and "rakett" were not on the card with two extra songs being sung. Long time reader, first time complainer, Alex Porm says "I love cheese", which has no particular relevance to this story. Once again Kati was unable to comment from her private yacht on Lake Macquarie.

COOKIE'S KITCHEN

We all love our Sörve surk and for more than 50 years the Pt. Wolly kitchen has been dishing up the classics including two fruits, and corned mutton (silverside!).

Ian 'Cookie' Darwen was head of the kitchen and looked forward to having the Sörve family every year. Unfortunately he passed away in 2011, aged 54.

Cookie was a great bloke with a wicked sense of humour – and his legacy lives on with the kitchen now referred to as "Cookie's Kitchen".

THE WISE WORDS OF PETER MAASEPP

Ever been caught in a conversation with the Laagri Vanem at lunch? No? Well here's a snippet of some of the things you may hear.

"... Nah, girls are different these days you see. They're smarter and run faster. If you ask me that's a dangerous combination. I say marry the first girl you meet..."

"... Google is just an excuse to not use your brain... Like when people Google the weather - I don't get it... just look out your window! And don't get me started on ninemsn..."

"... I used to have a pet possum... Randy. More faithful than any cat you will ever meet..."

"... What's with these energy drinks that the kids are drinking. I mean haven't they heard of vegetables. I get all of my energy from beetroot..."

Estonia is the smallest of all the Baltic States, being only slightly bigger than Switzerland and Denmark

LORD OF THE RAHVATANTS

Look into my eyes and tell me you love rahvatants

Hold me close tiny dancer

Absolute concentration

And everybody in...

A GRUPP LÕKE

Gnomes were spotted at A Grupp Lõke last night. They were very picky about what they did and didn't like. Turns out the dishwasher did it.

B GRUPP LÕKE

Flour power! What a great night at the B Grupp Lõke. There was dough covered in dirt and damper covered in jokes.

It was clear to see the B groupers loved their time alone. With many smiles, a few burnt tongues and even a Bunyip citing (yet to be confirmed).

SLEEP WALKERS

Estonian sleepwalking expert Ines Omnia has arrived at Sõrve to conduct a series of experiments on the Juhtkond. Her project is to find ways to maximise the amount of sleep the Juhid get at camp in order to avoid the mid-afternoon crash that turns the Juhide tare into a flophouse after lunch every day. Ines' plan is to train the Juhid to get up, brush their teeth and even shower while still asleep. They will then wake up at 7am sharp, dressed and ready for exercises. Ines believes that this will 'maximise every possible minute of sleep in the morning and greatly improve productivity'. Aimee Porm has bravely volunteered to be the first test subject.

This image shows Aimee shortly after she finished brushing her teeth at 6.30 this morning

SWIMMING UPSTREAM

With all the odds against them the boys from Tare 4 (VEEPÜSTOLID) have proven that inspection is not just about good looks. It's about hard work. And having a female juht.

ANOTHER SIGHTING

A groupers yesterday reported hearing unusual noises and seeing strange shadows in the bush on their hike to the point. The Sosin team set out to investigate their concerns and were alarmed to discover that yet again more footage of the Bunyip taken from our permanent webcam at the blanket shed on the way to the point. As we continue to track the Bunyips movements, we once again advise all campers to stay alert but not alarmed... for the time being.
