TERE TULEMAST

It's with immense joy that I introduce myself as Laagri Juht. The honor and excitement I feel undertaking this role at Sõrve is truly surreal. I'm eager and proud to contribute to this beloved community in a new capacity. Having first started as an elanik 20+ years ago. Thank you for this incredible opportunity. I'm thrilled to pour my passion and dedication into this role, continuing to nurture the spirit and growth of Sõrve.

SÖRVE SOSIN

FIRST NIGHT GAMES

Cuddles with old friends, cuddles with new,
Piggyback me, please, I'll piggyback you!
Salute the captain, man overboard is the call,
First night games, watch the kids soar tall!
In the warmth of embrace, old ties rebind,
New connections bloom, joy intertwined.
On sturdy shoulders, laughter takes flight,
In playful moments, hearts ignite.
Amidst tales of sea and adventurous lore,
Echoes of merriment ring, encore after encore.
Carefree spirits on a joyous accord,
In the dance of togetherness, we find reward.
So raise a cheer to nights filled with glee,
To friendships cherished, forever free.
With each shared moment, our bond restores,
In the symphony of love, our spirit soars.

SÖRVE SOSIN

C GROUP VISITS THE LILY POND

Every year the Bunjip's description changes. Here's a few the Sosin team have heard...

"Translucent and slender figure resembling a delicate dewdrop"

"Body refracts light, creating a shimmering, kaleidoscopic display of colours."

"Wings akin to spun silk, adorned with patterns resembling constellations."

"Glides gracefully through the forest, each movement resembling an elegant ballet."

"Reflective eyes like pools of stardust, holding the wisdom of ancient bush land"

"Carries tiny bells in its hair, emitting a melodic chime as it moves."

"Protector of Summer camps, young children and connected deeply to nature."

BARBIES VS KENS

After lunch on Monday, Barbie squared her shoulders, her bright eyes gleaming with determination as she faced off with Ken. "I've got brains and beauty, Ken. I'm the whole package," she asserted, her voice carrying a hint of playful challenge. Ken chuckled, a confident smirk gracing his lips. "But I've got style and charisma, Barbie. You know you can't resist this charm," he quipped, striking a pose. Barbie arched an eyebrow, a smirk playing on her lips. "Charm can only get you so far, Ken. It's my world, and you're just living in it," she retorted, tossing her hair with a confident flourish. The banter continued, each trading playful jabs and witty comebacks in a battle of wits and charm, a testament to their timeless rivalry.
