Gossip Tüdrukud

Hello Sörve campers.

We thought we'd start the week off with some fresh gossip and predictions for the week.

Now of course there are already some romances brewing, one of which is attempting to fly under the radar. But we know, a newly arrived 'bachelor' is infact in a relationship with another fellow camper, but our lips our sealed.

Also, it has come to our attention that Tare 4 have a little secret, and don't care to share it with the rest of us, but we are guessing that all will be revealed in time.

We've also heard whispers of raiding and A Group boys planning to cheat inspection. Don't be fooled, leaders.

Until next time Sörve,

xoxo Gossip Tüdrukud

Interview with Ago & Viivi Kuru

How long have you been coming to camp?

- 44 years, 3 generations of our family have gone to camp

What has changed over time?

- Showers & toilets are no longer communal
- Only Estonian was allowed to be spoken
- Had to wash all our own dishes

What was the food like?

- There was a dish called the floating fish
- The food is much better now

When did your 2 grand-daughters start coming to camp?

- Vivian & Veronica were both 2 1/2. I said they could only come when they were out of nappies, and within a week they were out of nappies.

How long do you think you'll come to camp for?

- I'll be coming until I'm 80

What do you think are the most important aspects of camp?

- Friendship e.g. it was lovely when my granddaughter Veronica formed a friendship with a girl who didn't speak a word of English, while Veronica couldn't speak a word of Estonian, and they held hands.
