Hello Sörve Campers,

Loud, long 'oohs' and aggressive, fast 'aahs' were among the many strange noises that were coming from the Mängu Saal yesterday afternoon. Coincidentally, a group of Blue Village females (and one Blue Village male) were seen leaving the scene not long after the suspicious noises were overheard. Tutt Tutt Blue Village.

It seems Estonians start young these days, as we've caught wind of a romance brewing in C group. The pair were seen wandering along, quietly chatting and holding hands whilst they were supposed to be engaged in a scavenger hunt. At least meeting the parents is over and done with.

To put it formally, it seems Sörve has a case of the runs. Toilet doors are locking for extended periods of time, people are sprinting back to their huts after meal times and everyone is stocking up on 1 ply toilet paper. Lets hope we don't block up the toilets.

The A Group girls are stealing shoes and bikinis, as well as stealing the A Group boys' manhood. We thought raiding was a man's job!

Until next time Sörve,

xoxo Gossip Tüdrukud

A massive congratulations to all the C Groupers who hiked all the way to the point !

FLOORBALL - THE NEW PHENOMENON THAT'S SWEEPING SÕRVE

Yesterday, Sõrve was introduced to a game called Floorball.

Our investigation led us to discover that Floorball is a very popular European sport, which is modelled on ice hockey.

There are approximately 4000 players in competition with each other around the world. One of these players, a Mr Allen Clay (who in fact plays for the Australian team), visited Sõrve and shared his professional knowledge and skill of the game with several of the extremely attractive kids we have here at camp (as shown on the left).

The Estonian floorball team is ranked 7th in the world.

The Australian floorball team is ranked 17th in the world.

So if you're thinking of taking up Floorball professionally, may we suggest giving the Australian team a helping hand.

RIDDLE

A man wanted to enter an exclusive club but did not know the password that was required. He waited by the door and listened. A club member knocked on the door and the doorman said: "Twelve." The member replied: "Six" and was let in. A second member came to the door and the doorman said "Six." The member replied "Three" and was let in.

The man thought he had heard enough and walked up to the door, the doorman said "Ten" and the man replied "Five" but was not let in.

What should he have said?

Sõrve Checkers Final. Current standings

Annika 1 : Mantas 1

The final match date is still to be decided however many believe that Annika with her strong checkers background shall prevail and lead her to victory. Better get practicing Mantas. You don't want to lose to a B grouper.....
